

SAYS FIRST WIFE'S GHOST HAS HABIT OF COMING BACK

Meriden Man Invites Photographer to Snap Unwelcome Guest if She Shows Up.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WATERBURY, March 10.—Gunter Mathes, a local photographer, has been assigned by a Waterbury newspaper to go to Meriden and attempt to get a photograph of a ghost which has a mean habit of appearing nightly in the home of Reinhold Kirshtein of No. 122 Lewis Avenue, Meriden.

Kirshtein swears the ghost of his first wife, dressed in a black and white gown, visits him every night. His second wife also has seen the apparition. Mr. Mathes, who has been communing with spirits for years, says he will take a flash of the spectre if she is obliging enough to show up.

CALEDONIA MILLS, N. S., March 10.—Antigonish folk are beginning to believe the notorious ghost that used to scare people in this valley must have given up noise-making during Lent.

Again nothing has happened in the home that Alex. MacDonald and his family deserted because they thought it haunted. Dr. Walter Franklin Prince, New York scientist, continued to lie with one eye open, waiting in vain for the spook to try to get funny with him.

Last night—the third since Dr. Prince arrived in search of the ghost—everything possible was done to make the spirit feel perfectly at home, in the hope that it would not be able to resist the temptation to have a little fun. MacDonald and his wife and their adopted daughter, Mary Ellen, came back to sleep in the beds they said the ghost scared them away from, but, as usual, nothing developed.

W. H. REMICK DIES OF HEART DISEASE

Banker Was Twice President of Stock Exchange—Funeral To-Morrow.

William H. Remick, twice President of the New York Stock Exchange and head of Remick, Hodges & Co., investment bankers, at No. 4 Wall Street, died yesterday at his home, No. 507 Fifth Avenue, of heart disease, after three days' illness. He had not been active in business for a year. Mr. Remick was born in East Boston, Oct. 14, 1868. As a young man he was identified with the woolen business, but in 1893 became associated with the firm of R. L. Day & Co. of Boston. In 1895 he came to New York and opened offices for them and in 1903 he became a member of the firm. He became a member of the Exchange in 1906 and formed the firm of Remick, Hodges & Co. in 1913. He married Miss Elizabeth Wilson Moore of Wilmington, Del., in 1903. He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Mary Moore Remick. The funeral will be held from St. Thomas's Church at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Paris Can Always Think of Something New— Witness this Frock

This Worthley model from Worth, Thirty-fourth Street, shows silver-bound squares of self material overlapped diagonally to fall below the hemline. Developed in Canton crepe and priced at $45.00. Designed and made in the workrooms of

WORTH

New York

Topcoats and Capes $39.50 to $52.50

For Travel, Motoring and Sports

Of soft imported English tweed, homespun, frieze and overcheck are developed many women's modes whose coloring is fascinating. Coats of English cut employ camel's hair in tan and cinnamon. All add much to your chic and little to your expenditure.

THIRD FLOOR

A New Sports Blouse of Silk Pebbled Knit $9.75

Sports blouses have developed a new mode from silk knit. And pebbled knit, the newest and most intriguing of the silk knit family, successfully makes this blouse well fitted to the lower waistline, with becoming collar and sleeves, as you may see. Navy, French blue, ruby, bisque and jade with contrasting trimmings. $9.75

FOURTH FLOOR

Strap Pumps and Saddle Oxfords, $6.90

One more day of the special selling of these smartest and most popular street shoes for women. The saddle oxfords are smoked elk with black saddle, or champagne elk with tan saddle. The sports pump, tan and champagne color, has rubber soles.

SECOND FLOOR

Spring Hats, $10

Combine the Charm of Simple Line and Bright Color

Crowns and brim facings of Canton crepe or a superior quality of faille. Dainty flowers. Trim bindings. In short, all the details that give hand-made hats that carefully finished well-groomed look—all are found in these hats. For they are all hand made—and beautifully made, too!

Marie Antoinette Flowers—These adorn the French blue hat with its becoming fluted brim, sketched top left. The navy blue visca with its canna colored flowers and feathery grass has a slightly rolling brim, below.

Both of these hats are typical of the hats in this collection—all of them much finer in quality and style than the price would indicate.

Tomorrow there will be a large selection and an unusual variety of smart black and suit shades. Also many glorious bright colors.

This Newest Frock

For Misses, of course, is of tweed just as tailored as her suits with collegiate collar, cuffs, and vestee of pique. It adds much to her chic and detracts little from her allowance. Orchid, rose, blue, $25

for Misses

To Wear Immediately

Cleverness in being both smart and practical is this Spring's vogue among missers.

Note the practical camel's hair coat she chooses to wear, strapped at the cuff, belted and collared in the most tailored fashion ('Tis said this value is matchless at $37.50). Also, the very English tweed coat, belted, that is nominally priced at $45

She may be equally clever and economical in the selection of this suit above or a box-coated model with collegiate collar, not illustrated; blue, tan, grey and orchid, at $27.50

THIRD FLOOR

Silk Knit Frocks for Women, $29.50

Exceptionally Reasonable

The new straight-of-line sports frocks developed of silk knit have a way of appearing chic and not in the least uninterestingly practical. Though essentially practical they are with very non-mussing qualities that make them so reassuringly smart for all day wear, sports or otherwise. Most reasonable at $29.50
